COLLECTION 2019

Edito

Once upon a time there was a company of boxes (but not only...) that celebrated its 10th anniversary!

A birthday is always a good time to look back. Take a look in the back mirror and see how far you've come from in just 3650 days. Remember the highlights - the 1st bento box, the 1st show, the 1st products in store, the launch of the subsidiaries too, and the Made in France. Remember the anecdotes that make this past so unique, here or there, as in the United States or Asia. Not forgetting the less happy moments, the periods of doubt that we have overcome.

It is also the opportunity to live intensely the present, this beautiful adventure, never a smooth ride, but so rich and fulfilling! Enjoy without limit this experience that we share on a daily basis with the whole monbento® team, personalities who contribute to the building every day.

And it is already looking to a future that we imagine optimistic, simple and more environmentally friendly.

The story of our company, the one we love and like to tell, would not have the same content without our community, our customers, our partners who believed in us and our values and who carried monbento® so high. So with all our heart THANK YOU, thank you for this tenth candle with a very special taste.

Émilie Creuzieux,
Co-founder & President

A company with something special

Trained as a physical therapist, Emilie discovered the Japanese bento box by chance. It quickly became useful in her everyday life. But despite its relevance with the Occidental market, the product is difficult to find in Europe. Faced with this fact, in March 2009, when only 26 years old, she obtains the support of two partners to create the monbento® company.

Emilie Creuzieux

Co-founder & President

It's to live extraordinary experiences that this extreme sports addict has decided to take the plunge by creating her own company. Free, creative and concerned by the world surrounding her, she embodies the values of the brand she gave birth to.

Fabien Marret

Co-founder, designer et GM

When founding monbento®, he made come true his dream to create his own collection of to-go products and he put design at the heart of the company. He makes the collection live through a range of innovative products, with its French design imprint: always placing the user at the heart of his concerns with simplicity and elegance.

« The French bento leader joins forces with an iconic tableware brand »

Hand in hand with Peugeot

Driven by a desire to continually take innovation further, the bento specialist brand has been proud to welcome the Peugeot Family Group as a shareholder since July 2018. Peugeot is already active in the tableware sector through its subsidiary Peugeot Saveurs SNC and this partnership opens up new development vistas for monbento®.

Two hundred year old French brand Peugeot is well known in the tableware and kitchen sector for its spice mills and other utensils (coffee mills, wine accessories, cutlery), which reflect its style, ingenuity, rigour and sense of family.

Exporting French quality of life to 90 countries, Peugeot Saveurs SNC is experiencing rapid growth and continues to expand into new applications, to take the constraints out of cooking... With this in mind, closer ties with monbento have been created to reveal many shared values and joint aspirations. A real taste for French design and know-how, sensitivity to technology and innovation, an international outlook, and an appreciation of the human dimension are the tenets that unite Peugeot and monbento®.

This commonality is behind the desire to join forces while maintaining each brands' uniqueness – to exchange skills, share experiences, support – and move forward together to face new challenges.

Emilie and Fabien, still shareholders, will continue to manage the business, and their team from the Auvergne mountains. Centred on a true spirit of partnership, the company is branching out with new goals and an increase in business potential that promises a future rich in major projects.

The Made in France challenge met

The brand's emblematic box - the MB Original bento box - has just added an important chapter to its history. Exclusively made in China until then, the product became Made in France in August 2017, for all its production dedicated to the Europe zone.

Supporting the local economy while reducing our carbon footprint

« Producing in France has been a desire since the company was founded. With the growth of monbento® and its international expansion, our production volumes have enabled us to restart the search for local manufacturing partners for our European market, while retaining our production with Asian plants for our other markets.

« Producing in France has been a desire since the company was founded »

Our requirements were numerous: preserving the DNA of our flagship bento box, gaining even more quality, controlling our production costs... It has been a long way but efforts have paid off.

Today, we are proud to be able to support the local economy while reducing our carbon footprint and increasing our flexibility. Our medium-term ambition is to develop new Made in France references. »

President of monbento®

The focus on quality and design

The choice of materials

Why plastic?

- Reusable for a very long time: shock resistant and slow wear
- Lightweight so easy to carry everywhere
- Microwave and dishwasher safe
- Transport and manufacturing that use less energy and generate less CO₂ than glass
- Easy and less frequent recycling due to its resistance to breakage

The selection of monbento®

- PBT (polybutylene terephthalate): a high-end material with excellent performance in terms of rigidity and resistance. It is 6 times more resistant to heat and corrosion than other plastics on the market. The MB Original by monbento® is the only bento box on the market to be made of PBT.
- PP (polypropylene): highly resistant, easily recyclable. Products concerned: MB Square, MB Lib, MB Temple, MB Tresor, MB Gram and MB Kawaii.
- Tritan™: transparent like glass, lightweight and resistant. Product concerned: MB Positive.
- PLA (polylactic acid): vegetable origin, 100% biodegradable. Product concerned: MB Pocket Color.

« A 1-litre glass bottle generates 345 grams of CO₂ over its life cycle, compared to 129 grams for a plastic bottle. »

Reusable: the key word

The only good waste is the one that is never produced! Easier said than done, especially in our modern societies...

For monbento®, being committed and responsible in this struggle means proposing alternatives to everyday situations; new habits that, repeated every day and by an increasing number of people, will significantly limit the negative impacts on the environment.

Our solution? Make the to-go meal in all its ways responsible but not constraining it, by designing reusable containers that are easy to transport, functional and elegant.

Our dearest wish? That switching to non-disposable packagings for meal breaks taken outside of home becomes the new «norm».
